EXECUTIVE ORDER

APPOINTMENT OF MRS. CHARLES BROADY.

The Public Printer under date of January 24, 1906, reported that he had authorized the temporary appointment of Mrs. Charles Broady in the Government Printing Office, and in his action on a note received from the President, a copy of which is given below:

"Mrs. Charles Broady of 43 Bates Street, Washington, D. C., is the widow of a soldier who served five years in the Regular Army and resigned to accept a position under the civil government at Manila and died of cholera while in the service. She has one child, a girl two years of age, and no means of support.

Dear Mr. Stillings:

If this case is as deserving as it seems, could the woman be given at least a temporary place?

(signed) T. Roosevelt."

The Commission regarded this note of the President as an Executive order authorizing the appointment of Mrs. Broady without examination.

CIS TRANSCRIPTION FROM NATIONAL ARCHIVES MICROFILM PUBLICATION
No. M1118 1906-EO-400

EXECUTIVE ORDER

APPOINTMENT OF MRS. CHARLES BROADY

The Public Printer under date of January 24, 1906, reported that he had authorized the temporary appointment of Mrs. Charles Broady in the Government Printing Office, basing the action on a note received from the President, a copy of which is given below:

"Mrs. Charles Broady of 43 Bates Street, Washington, D.C., is the widow of a soldier who served five years in the Regular Army and resigned to accept a position under the civil government at Manila and died of cholera while in the service. She has one child, a girl ten years of age, and no means of support.

Dear Mrs. Stiilings:

If this case is as deserving as it seems, could the woman be given at least a temporary place?

(signed) T. Roosevelt

The Commission regarded this note of the President as an Executive Order authorizing the appointment of Mrs. Broady without examination.