EXECUTIVE ORDER

NONCOMPETITIVE EXAMINATION IN THE CASE OF MR. HOWARD H. PELOEN.

Under date of December 11, 1905, the President approved an order permitting the appointment of Mr. Howard H. Peloen in any of the Executive Departments upon his passing a satisfactory noncompetitive examination.

The Treasury Department in a letter of February 7, 1906, forwarded an affidavit giving a statement of the services of Mr. Peloen on the Isthmus of Panama, and on this affidavit indorsed the following endorsement by the President:

> "Waive all examination in view of his service in the Spanish War, of his satisfactory record in office, and of facts above set forth. Signed T. Roosevelt."

This endorsement was regarded by the Commission as an executive order waiving the requirement of noncompetitive examination in Mr. Peloen's case.
