459

FILED
★ OCT 16 1935
the Secretary's

Executive Order.

442

The Executive Order of April 27, 1906, discontinuing and abolishing the office of United States Surveyor-General for the State of Florida is hereby changed and modified to read as follows:

In compliance with the provisions of section 2118 of the Revised Statutes of the United States it is hereby ordered that the office of the United States Surveyor-General for the State of Florida, now located at Tallahassee, Florida, be and the same is hereby discontinued and abolished from and after June 30, 1907.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
June 14th, 1906.