Executive Order.

In view of the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1899, by which the grade of Commodore in the Naval service of the United States was abolished, the following changes are made in the instructions of 1897 to Diplomatic Officers and the Consular Regulations of December 3, 1896.

DIPLOMATIC.

Instructions to Diplomatic Officers, paragraph 42, page 17, add: First Secretaries of Embassy rank with, but after, Brigadier-Generals in the Army and hold a rank intermediate between Rear-Admirals and Captains in the Navy.

Secretaries of Legation rank with, but after, Colonels in the Army and Captains in the Navy.

CONSULAR.

Consular Regulations, paragraph 441, page 173. The first section of this paragraph is amended to read: Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadier-Generals in the Army and hold rank intermediate between Rear-Admirals and Captains in the Navy.

On occasions of ceremony, other than purely diplomatic functions, Consuls-General rank with, but next before, First Secretaries of Embassy.
