Executive Order.

It is hereby ordered that such portions of the islands situate in Key West Harbor and its approaches, in the State of Florida, known as Man Key and Woman Key, in approximate latitude 24 degrees 31 minutes north, and in approximate longitude west, Man Key 81 degrees 58 minutes, and Woman Key 81 degrees 55 minutes, and shown upon U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey Chart No. 469, as are hereinafter described, be, and the same are hereby reserved for the use of the Navy Department, as follows: All that part of Man Key lying in section 17; all of Woman Key, lying in sections 13 and 14; also, the small islet in sections 11 and 14, north of Woman Key, about one-eighth of a mile distant, and separated therefrom by a shallow channel of water, Township No. 68 south, Range 23 east, as described and shown upon the plat approved December, 1870, by the Assistant in charge of the office of the U. S. Coast Survey, subject to any vested rights of persons therein.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
June 8, 1908.

[No. 808.]