Executive Order.

Since the Secretary of the Interior is absent from the seat of government, and the First Assistant Secretary will be necessarily away from Washington at various times during the Secretary's absence, I hereby authorize and direct George W. Woodruff, Assistant Attorney-General, to perform the duties of Secretary of the Interior during any concurrent absences of the Secretary and First Assistant Secretary. Limited to September 30th next. (Sec. 179 R. S.)

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
August 10, 1908.
