1228

Executive Order.

SILETZ INDIAN RESERVATION.

Under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1910, Public 303, an act authorizing the President of the United States to make withdrawals of the public lands in certain cases, it is hereby ordered that the public lands within the boundaries of the Siletz Indian Reservation, located in the State of Oregon, which were conveyed to the United States by treaty agreement entered into October 31, 1892, which agreement was ratified by act of Congress dated August 15, 1894, 28 Stat. 326, more particularly shown on the attached diagram, are hereby temporarily withdrawn for the purpose of classifying said lands, and pending the enactment of legislation under which same can be properly disposed of; Provided, that all said lands shall at all times be open to exploration, discovery, occupation and purchase under the mining laws of the United States, so far as the same applies to minerals other than coal, oil, gas, and phosphate; and the rights of any person who at the date hereof is a bona fide occupant or claimant of oil or gas bearing lands and who at such date is in diligent prosecution of work leading to discovery of oil or gas, shall not be affected or impaired by this order, so long as such occupant or claimant shall continue in diligent prosecution of such work; and Provided, further, that there shall be excepted from the force and effect of this order of withdrawal all lands which are on this date embraced in any lawful homestead entry heretofore made or upon which any valid settlement has been made, and is at such date being maintained and perfected pursuant to law; but the terms of this proviso shall not continue to apply to any particular tract of land unless the entryman or settler shall continue to comply with the law under which the entry or settlement was made.

WM H TAFT

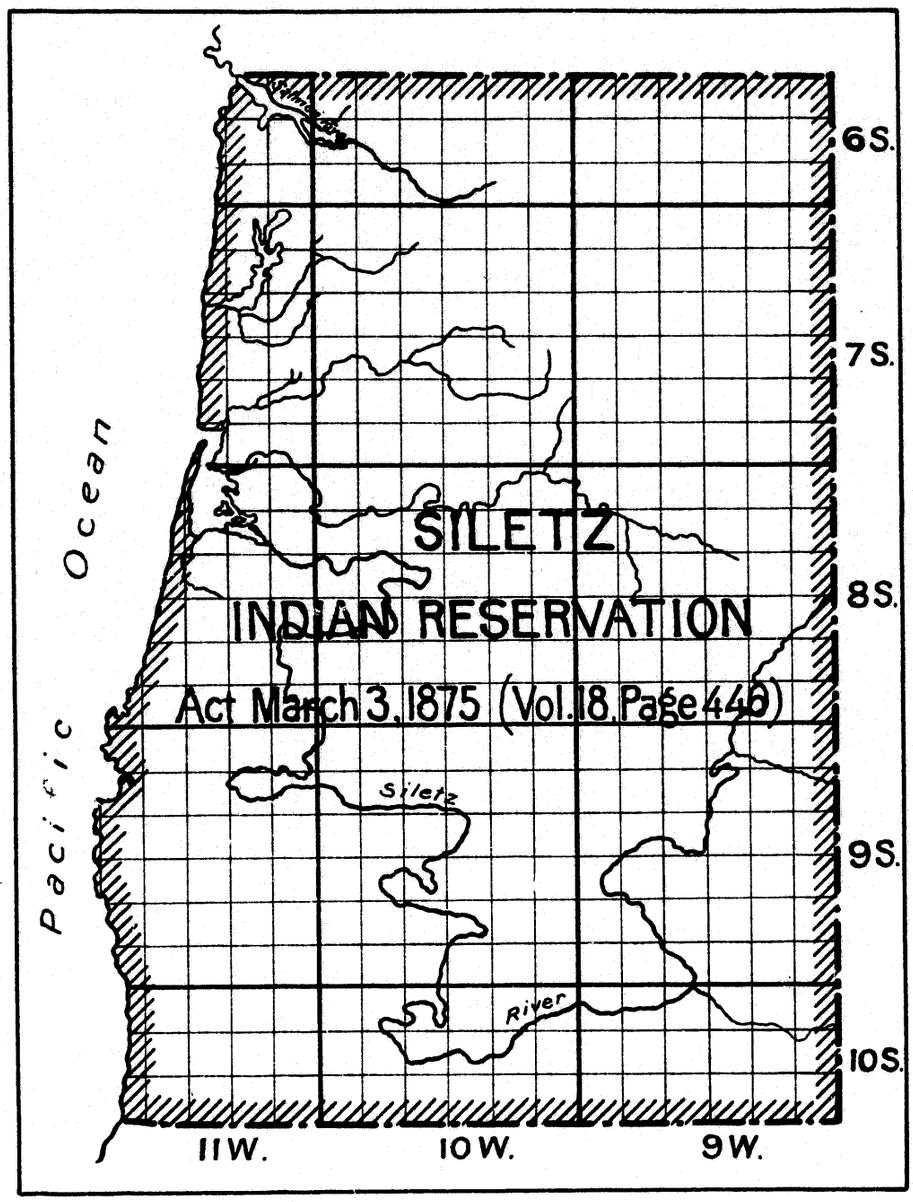

THE WHITE HOUSE,
July 13, 1910.

[No. 1228.]

SILETZ INDIAN RESERVATION

OREGON.

Willamette Meridian & Base.

Indian Reservation Boundary