Executive Order

The Act making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the year ending June 30, 1912, and for other purposes, provides that "The President of the United States from and after the passage of this Act is authorized to designate from time to time any member of the Interstate Commerce Commission or of the Court of Commerce to exercise the powers conferred and the duties imposed upon the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission by the provisions of the 'Act concerning carriers engaged in interstate commerce and their employees,' approved June first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; and the member so designated, during the period for which he is designated, shall have the powers now conferred by said Act on the Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission." In accordance with this provision I hereby designate Martin A. Knapp, Presiding Judge of the Commerce Court to exercise such powers for a period of two years.
