1764

Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that the following described tract of land bordering upon the Chilkat River in and surrounding the village of Klukwan situated in approximate Latitude 59° 24′ North, Longitude 135° 47′ West from Greenwich in Alaska, be, and the same is hereby reserved, subject to any vested rights and the right of way of a U. S. wagon road, for the use of the natives of Alaska residing now or hereafter at said village or within the limits of the reservation, viz:

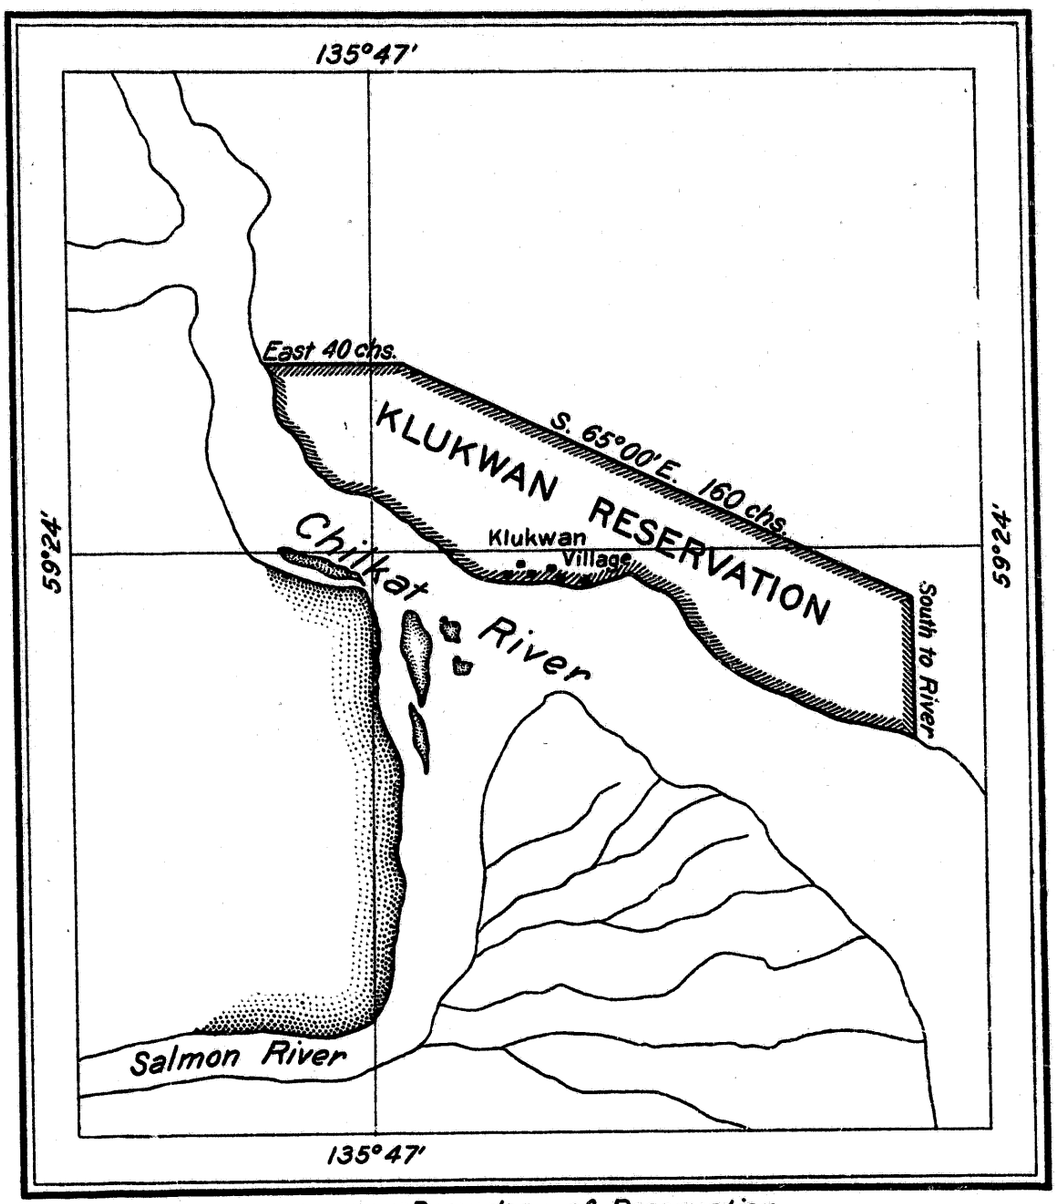

Beginning at the southwest corner of the approved survey No. 991 of S. J. Weitzman's homestead, thence running East with his line 40 chains to a point, thence South 65° East 160 chains to a point, thence South to the bank of Chilkat River, thence with the meanders of said stream to the place of beginning, with an approximate area of 800 acres, as represented upon a diagram accompanying this order and made a part thereof.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
21 April, 1913.

[No. 1764.]

RESERVATION
FOR THE USE OF
ALASKAN NATIVES OF KLUKWAN VILLAGE
ON CHILKAT RIVER 22 MILES ABOVE HAINES
ALASKA
Estimated Area 800 Acres

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
BUREAU OF EDUCATION
P. P. Claxton, Commissioner