Executive Order

In accordance with the provisions of section 40 of the act entitled "An act to increase the efficiency of the permanent military establishment of the United States", approved February 2, 1901, which authorizes the President to "prescribe the kinds and quantities of the component articles of the Army ration, and to direct the issue of substitutive equivalent articles in place of any such components whenever, in his opinion, economy and a due regard to the health and comfort of the troops may so require," the Executive Order of January 21, 1913, is amended as follows:

The authority for the addition of lard compound as a substitutive article for lard in the garrison ration is revoked, and the following authorized instead:

"Garrison Ration.

Lard substitute is added as a substitutive article for lard, at the rate of .64 oz. to the ration."
