1825

Executive Order

Employees of the Department of State in the United States Despatch Agencies at New York City, San Francisco and New Orleans, who have been or may be authorized by that Department to take applications for passports, and who have obtained or may obtain appointments as notaries public, are hereby granted authority to accept fees for executing passport applications and administering oaths in connection therewith, not to exceed twenty-five cents in each case; such fees may be retained not to exceed twenty-five dollars in any one month in each office, any receipts in excess thereof to be turned into the Treasury. The Executive Order of December 31, 1904, as amended by the Executive Order of March 31, 1905, is hereby further amended.
