1883

Executive Order

ALASKA

Under authority of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act To Authorize the President of the United States to make withdrawals of public lands in certain cases," approved June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 847), as amended by the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat., 497), it is hereby ordered that the Executive Order dated March 28, 1911, withdrawing "all tracts of public lands in the District of Alaska upon which hot springs, or other springs, the waters of which possess curative medicinal properties, are located, to the extent of 160 acres surrounding each spring, in rectangular form with side and end lines equidistant, as near as may be, from such spring or group of springs," be revoked so far as it applies to lands within National Forests.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
24 January, 1914.

[No. 1883.]