It appearing that a portion of the lands excluded from the Paulina National Forest as aforesaid is embraced in existing withdrawals that should not now be revoked or modified, and it further appearing proper and necessary in the interest of equal opportunity and good administration that all of such excluded lands subject to disposition should be restored to settlement in advance of entry, it is hereby ordered, pursuant to the authority reposed in me by the Act of September 30, 1913 (38 Stat., 113), that such lands, subject to valid rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, shall be open to actual settlers only under the provisions of the homestead laws from and including nine o'clock, a. m., standard time, on the 9th day of May, 1914, until and including the 7th day of June, 1914, and thereafter to entry and disposition under any and all of the public land laws applicable thereto.

Persons who go upon any of the lands to be restored as herein provided and perform any act of settlement thereon from and including the date hereof until nine o'clock, a. m., May 9, 1914, or who are on or are occupying any part of such lands at said hour, except those having valid subsisting settlement rights initiated prior to reservation and since maintained, will be considered and dealt with as trespassers and preference will be given the prior legal applicant, notwithstanding such unlawful settlement or occupancy: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent persons from going upon and over the lands to examine them with a view to thereafter going upon and making settlement thereon when the lands shall become subject thereto in accordance with this order. Persons having prior settlement rights, as above defined, will be allowed to make entry in conformity with existing law and regulations.
