Executive Order.

Officers and employees of the Federal Government may serve as election officers in Porto Rico, when appointed for that purpose by the Governor of Porto Rico.

The effect of this order is to waive so much of section 1 of Civil Service Rule I, prohibiting political activity, and of the Executive order of January 17, 1873, prohibiting the holding of local office, as would prevent federal officers and employees in Porto Rico from serving in the capacity of election officer when their service is desired by the Governor of Porto Rico.

The Civil Service Commission, which recommends the issuance of this order, may revoke the authority granted if it finds that the privilege is abused.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
October 31, 1914.
