2139

Executive Order.

In view of the unavoidable delays, occasioned by the war, to Diplomatic and Consular Officers of the United States in traveling to and from their posts of duty, paragraphs 294 of the "Instructions to the Diplomatic Officers of the United States" and 478 of the "Consular Regulations of the United States", establishing maximum transit periods, together with any amendments to those paragraphs, are hereby cancelled and, with the exception of cases in which specific orders to the contrary are issued in writing by the Department of State, the transit period within the meaning of the statute, (18 Statutes at Large, page 70, section 4) will be construed to be the time actually and necessarily occupied in making direct transit between the officer's place of residence and his post of duty.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
25 February, 1915.

[No. 2139.]