Executive Order.

The Executive Order of March 30, 1915, authorizing and directing Edward E. Pratt, Chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, to perform the duties of the Secretary of Commerce during the absence of the Secretary and certain other officials, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 179 of the Revised Statutes, I hereby authorize and direct that during the absence of the Secretary of Commerce, the Assistant Secretary, and the Solicitor for the Department of Commerce, Samuel W. Stratton, Director of the Bureau of Standards, or Edward E. Pratt, Chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, will perform the duties of the Secretary. Their relative standing will be coordinate, and either official may be called upon to perform the duties of the Secretary as the latter may elect.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,

30 April, 1915.
