2249

Executive Order.

To enable the employees in the Government Service to join with the citizens of the District of Columbia in showing honor to the veterans of the Civil War on the occasion of the parade of the Grand Army Encampment, which is to take place on Wednesday, September 29, 1915, it is hereby ordered that the several Executive Departments and Independent Government Establishments in the District of Columbia, including the Government Printing Office and the Navy Yard and Station, be closed, and all clerks and other employees in the Federal Service in the District of Columbia, except those who may for special public reasons be excepted from the provisions of this order, or those whose absence from duty would be inconsistent with the provisions of existing law, are hereby excused from duty, on that day.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
27 September, 1915.
