2337

Executive Order.

The Secretary of Commerce having requested that a certain lot or parcel of ground in the Town of Sitka, in the Territory of Alaska, commonly known as and called "the Tea House ground", withdrawn by Executive Order of date June 21, 1890, and by said order set apart and devoted to occupancy and use by the Treasury Department in connection with the collection of customs at said Port of Sitka, be now transferred to the custody and control of the Department of Commerce, for occupancy and use by the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and the Secretary of the Treasury having signified his willingness that such transfer shall be made, it is, therefore, now and hereby ordered and directed that the custody, control and use of said parcel of ground, with the buildings and improvements thereon, more particularly described in the aforesaid order of withdrawal as follows, to-wit:

"—— Also the land upon which were situated the buildings designated on the map as Nos. 116, 117, and 118, and more particularly described as follows, to wit: Commencing at a point 28 feet from the northwest corner of the main building situated on American street, now occupied by Reuben Alberstone as a hotel, and running thence in a northerly direction 123 feet to the line of a street or road; thence along said street or road 224 feet in an easterly direction to certain fence posts; thence south-easterly 109 feet to the line of an old fence; thence in a westerly direction 197 feet to the place of beginning."

be and the same is hereby transferred to the Department of Commerce, to be occupied and used by the Coast and Geodetic Survey as the site for a magnetic observatory and for other administrative uses and purposes.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
March 8, 1916.

[No. 2337.]