Executive Order.

ALASKA RAILROAD AND TOWNSITE WITHDRAWAL
NO. 11.

Under and pursuant to the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 12, 1911 (38 Stat., 305), entitled "An Act to authorize the President of the United States to locate, construct, and operate railroads in the Territory of Alaska, and for other purposes," it is hereby ordered that the following lands, be, and the same are hereby, withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, entry, or other disposition and reserved for townsite purposes, and for other purposes in connection with the construction and operation of railroad lines under said act under such regulations as have been or may hereafter be prescribed: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be held to preclude the use or disposition of any of the timber on said lands, not embraced within a national forest, in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of the Act of Congress approved May 14, 1898 (30 Stat., 414), when it shall appear to the Secretary of the Interior or to the Alaskan Engineering Commission, that the granting of such privileges will not interfere with the purposes for which the withdrawal is made:

GLACIER CREEK.

"Beginning on east side of mouth of Virgin Creek at mean high tide, Turnagain Arm; thence along east bank said creek in northerly direction two miles; thence west on direct line two miles; thence south approximately two miles to line of mean high tide, Turnagain Arm; thence along the shore of mean high tide approximately two miles to point of beginning."

INDIAN RIVER.

"Beginning at most southerly point of main land between Indian and Susitna Rivers on west side, south of Indian River, and running southwesterly along north bank of Susitna River, one mile; thence due north, three miles; thence due east, three miles; thence due south, three miles; thence westerly, two miles, more or less, to point of beginning."
