Executive Order

ALASKA TOWNSITE WITHDRAWAL

No. 12.

Under and pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved March 12, 1914 (38 Stat., 305), entitled "An Act to authorize the President of the United States to locate, construct, and operate railroads in the Territory of Alaska, and for other purposes," it is hereby ordered that the following lands be, and the same are hereby, withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, entry or other disposition and reserved for townsite purposes, and for other purposes in connection with the construction and operation of railroad lines under said act and under such regulations as have been or may hereafter be prescribed; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be held to preclude the use or disposition of any of the timber on said lands, not embraced within a national forest, in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of the Act of Congress approved May 14, 1898 (30 Stat., 414), when it shall appear to the Secretary of the Interior or to the Alaskan Engineering Commission, that the granting of such privileges will not interfere with the purposes for which the withdrawal was made:

SUSITNA

A tract on the east side of Susitna Valley described as follows:

"Beginning at a point one mile due South of the Southwest Corner of Susitna Junction withdrawal, as described in the Alaska Townsite Withdrawal No. 1, Executive Order of April 21, 1914 (No. 1919½); thence due North four miles; thence due West six miles, more or less, to the East bank of Susitna River; thence meandering on the East bank of said river in a Southerly direction for a distance of four miles, more or less, to a point due West of the point of beginning; thence due East six miles more or less, to the place of beginning."
