Executive Order

Matthew E. Hanna, of Connecticut, now in the Embassy of the United States at Mexico City, may be examined for a secretaryship in the diplomatic service without reference to the Executive Order of April 21, 1915, that no person shall be certified as eligible for appointment as a secretary in the diplomatic service who is over thirty-five years of age.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
27 March, 1917.
