Temporary 2817

Executive Order.

In order to effect the more expeditious construction of the proposed new building to be erected on the Wall Street front of the Assay Office property in New York City the early completion of such building for the use and accommodation of the Treasury Department in connection with the transaction of its business in the sub-treasury and assay office in said city creating a National emergency, and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1917, entitled "An Act Making Provisions for the Naval Service for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1918, and for other purposes" (39 Stat. 1192), whereby it is provided "That in case of National emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided, further, that the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with overtime rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours", I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in any one day by persons engaged in the construction of the above-mentioned proposed new building. This order will take effect from and after this date.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
5 March, 1918.

[No. 2817.]