2851

Executive Order.

In order to effect the more expeditious construction, etc., of the proposed buildings for the Quarantine Station at Boston, Massachusetts, the early completion of which in connection with war activities, constitutes a National Emergency and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1192), entitled "An Act Making Provisions for the Naval Service for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 1918, and for other purposes", whereby it is provided "that in cases of National Emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided further, that the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with over time rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours", I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in any one day by persons engaged in the construction, etc., of the above mentioned proposed new structures. This order will take effect from and after this date.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
27 April, 1918.

[No. 2851.]