Executive Order

In order to effect the more expeditious reconstruction of vault No. 17 in the Loans and Currency Division of the Treasury Department and located in the west corridor of the basement of the Treasury Building, the early completion of said vault for the use of activities of the Treasury Department in connection with war measures constituting a national emergency, and by authority of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1192) entitled "An Act making provisions for the Naval Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and for other purposes", whereby it is provided "that in cases of national emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided, further, that the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with over time rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours", I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged in the reconstruction of the above mentioned vault. This order will take effect from and after this date.
