2907-A

Executive Order.

WHEREAS, it is necessary that HERBERT HOOVER, United States Food Administrator, be absent from the United States for an extended period of time in connection with matters of national importance, I hereby direct that all powers and authority delegated to Herbert Hoover, as United States Food Administrator, may be exercised in his absence by EDGAR RICKARD and that said powers and authority may be exercised in the name of Herbert Hoover, United States Food Administrator.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
9 July, 1918.

[No. 2907-A.]