Temporary

3736

Executive Order

Charles D. Tenney of Massachusetts, may be appointed a Secretary of Class One in the Diplomatic Service of the United States, without reference to the usual requirements prescribed by the Executive Order of November 26, 1909, No. 1143 regulating appointments and promotions in the Diplomatic Service.

Dr. Tenney is a graduate of Dartmouth College and he has lived in China for thirty-two years. During that period he has held the following positions: Principal, Anglo-Chinese School, Tientsin; President, Imperial Chinese University, Tientsin; Chinese Secretary, Tientsin Provisional Government; Superintendent of schools in Chihili Province; Director of Chinese Government students in England and America; Vice Consul and Interpreter of the United States at Tientsin; member of the Joint International Opium Commission, Shanghai; Consul at Nanking; Chinese Secretary to the Legation of the United States at Peking.

Dr. Tenney's long and honored career in China has given him a wide acquaintance among Chinese officials in Peking and in the Provinces, and it is believed that in view of his ability and standing, his appointment as First Secretary to the American Legation in China will be to the great advantage of the American Government in that country.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
14 August, 1918.

[No. 2936]