Executive Order

In order to effect the more expeditious reconstruction of the Court House of the District of Columbia, the early completion of which is necessary so that the present temporary quarters occupied by the United States Courts and their officials, urgently needed by the War Department, may be made available for its use, and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1917, entitled "An Act Making Provisions for the Naval Service for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1918, and for other Purposes", whereby it is provided that in case of national emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day by persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States, provided further, that the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work with overtime rate to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours, I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in any one day by persons engaged in the reconstruction of the Court House at Washington, D. C. This order shall take effect from and after this date.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
