2969

Executive Order.

WHEREAS, The Commissioners of the District of Columbia have requested as an emergency measure relating to the conduct of the War that the Snare and Triest Company of New York City, New York, who have contracted to construct a viaduct to carry the Benning Road over the several railroad tracks, west of and near Benning, D. C., be excepted from the provisions of the Eight Hour Law governing the hours of laborers and mechanics employed by them under their contract;

THEREFORE, Be it ordered, that I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, do hereby declare that the prosecution of the activity hereinbefore mentioned is an emergency measure relating to the conduct of the present War, and this activity is, for the period of the War, excepted from the provisions of the Eight Hour Law governing the hours of laborers and mechanics employed in connection therewith:

PROVIDED, however, that pay be allowed to those entitled thereto in the construction of the said viaduct with compensation of time and a-half for over time work spent upon said construction.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
7 October, 1918.

[No. 2969.]

Lab. Eight Hour Law