Temporary

2982

Executive Order.

ALASKA.

MODIFICATION OF RAILROAD TOWNSITE REGULATIONS.

It having been made to appear to me that, as a result of conditions produced by the war in which this country is now engaged, it will be for the best interests of the Territory of Alaska, of certain towns in said territory hereinafter named, and of the railroad now under construction by this Government in that territory, that the time or times fixed and prescribed by administrative regulations for the payment of certain portions of the purchase money due or to become due on lots in said named towns, which have been heretofore sold in accordance with said regulations, shall be enlarged and extended:

Now, therefore, in and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress of March 12, 1914 (38 Stats., 305) entitled "An Act to authorize the President of the United States to locate, construct and operate railroads in the Territory of Alaska, and for other purposes," I do hereby order and direct that all lot payments falling due in August, 1918, and all lot payments falling due subsequent to August, 1918, in the towns of Anchorage, Matanuska, Nenana, and Wasilla, and in any additions thereto, be and the same are hereby extended for the period of one year from the date when the same became or become due. Lot payments in said towns falling due prior to August first, 1918, are not hereby extended. Executive Order No. 2214, issued June 19, 1915, and all other orders conflicting herewith are hereby modified to conform with this order.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
