Executive Order

The Executive Orders of November 26, 1909, and April 21, 1915, concerning examinations for the diplomatic service, are hereby amended so as to permit persons not over 40 years of age to be designated for the next regular examination to be held for the purpose of obtaining eligibles for secretaryships in the diplomatic service.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
March 15, 1919.
