Executive Order.

Inasmuch as Edward John Norton entered the Consular Service on March 30, 1907, after attaining the prescribed rating upon examination, under existing rules, served efficiently for more than six years, during which period he was twice promoted for meritorious service; voluntarily resigned in 1913; and again entered the Service in 1916 in an unclassified position of Vice Consul in which he has served efficiently for more than two years, he may be reinstated, without re-examination, in the grade of the Service from which he resigned, when a vacancy shall occur.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
8 April, 1919.
