Executive Order.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the act of Congress entitled "An Act authorizing the President to coordinate or consolidate executive bureaus, agencies, and offices, and for other purposes, in the interest of economy and the more efficient concentration of the Government," approved May 20, 1918, as well as by virtue of any and all other acts of Congress conferring authority upon me in the premises, I hereby order and direct:

See no 3320

1. That whenever in his judgment it is expedient the United States Food Administrator at his discretion shall relinquish and transfer to the United States Wheat Director by definitive command all or any integral part of the duties, powers and functions of the United States Food Administration, and its records and public property appertaining to its officers, agents, employees and representatives, including the members and personnel appertaining to the duties, powers and functions so relinquished and transferred; and the salaries and expenses and all outstanding liabilities in connection with or arising out of matters and things so relinquished and transferred shall be charged against and paid from the funds available to the United States Wheat Director.

2. Upon the completion of the powers, duties and functions of the United States Food Administration and the United States Food Administrator or any of the powers, duties and functions so relinquished and transferred as aforesaid, any of the papers, files, records, supplies and other public property appertaining to the United States Food Administration which are, in the judgment of the United States Wheat Director, necessary for the performance of his duties shall be transferred to and taken possession of by the United States Wheat Director and the expense of keeping up and maintaining the same may be paid from the funds available to the United States Wheat Director.
