Executive Order

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 2521, dated January 26, 1917, describing the metes and bounds of the Kahauiki (Fort Shafter) Military Reservation, Hawaii, in accordance with a re-survey of the boundaries thereof completed in March 1915, describes also certain easements and rights of way upon and across the said reservation,

AND WHEREAS, a certain portion of an existing right of way for a public road upon the reservation, known as the Slaughter House Road, was omitted from said description and Executive Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, the said Executive Order is hereby amended by the addition under paragraph 4 thereof as sub-paragraph (c) of the description of the omitted portion of the said right of way, the same being the ancient location thereof, as follows:

"(c) Strip along northerly side of Slaughter House Road described by true azimuths and distances as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southern boundary of Kahauiki Military Reservation, (Fort Shafter), the true azimuth and distance from standard concrete monument No. 34 being 57° 17′ 11″—59.3 feet; thence

1. 57° 17′ 11″—252.4 feet to standard concrete monument No. 35; thence
2. 62° 33′ 23″— 52.0 feet along the southern boundary of Kahauiki Military Reservation (Fort Shafter); thence
3. 228° 50′ 00″—109.0 feet to a point on the northerly side of Slaughter House Road, thence
4. 241° 54′ 00″—191.1 feet to a concrete monument on the northerly side of Slaughter House Road; thence
5. 279° 44′ 00″— 8.0 feet along the south side of the Oahu Railway and Land Company's 40 foot right of way to the point of beginning."

The portion above described of the said right of way is further described as lying within that part of the Kahauiki (Fort Shafter) Military Reservation designated by order of the Secretary of War of July 9, 1918, as the Hawaiian Ordnance Depot.
