Executive Order.

Paragraph 692 of the Consular Regulations of 1896 as amended by T. D. 34542 and T. D. 36722 is hereby amended to read as follows:

692. CURRENCY CERTIFICATES:

(a) Depreciation as compared with the corresponding standard coin currency of the country, Form 144:

When the price or value of merchandise obtained by purchase, shipped pursuant to an agreement of purchase, or consigned for sale in the United States is expressed in the invoice in a currency which is depreciated as compared to the corresponding standard coin currency, a currency certificate (form 144) must be attached to the invoice showing the percentage of depreciation as compared with the corresponding standard coin currency and the value in such standard coin currency of the total amount of the depreciated currency stated in the invoice. (Rev. Stat. sec. 2903; T. D. 17252.) This certificate should show, not the value of the depreciated currency in money of account of the United States, but its value in the terms of the standard coin currency in comparison with which the currency stated in the invoice is depreciated. (T. D. 11314, 17170).

(b) Exchange value as compared with United States currency, Form 144 a:

If for any reason the consul is unable to certify that the currency of the invoice is depreciated as compared with the standard currency and if the currency specified in the invoice is exchanged for United States currency in the country of exportation at a rate which is lower than the value proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury, the consul shall attach to the invoice a certificate (form 144 a) showing the rate at which such currency is exchanged for United States money in the principal market of the country on the date of the certification of the invoice and such currency shall be reduced by the collector of customs to United States currency in accordance with the currency certificate (form 144 a).

In the assessment of duty the currency of the invoice is reduced to the money of account of the United States upon the basis of the values of foreign coins at the date of shipment, as proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury for the first day of January, April, July and October of each year. (Tariff of 1894, sec. 25; T. D. 16921) The date of the consular certification of any invoice shall, for the purpose of this section, be considered the date of exportation. (Tariff of 1894, sec. 25.) In the absence of a currency certificate no allowance will be made by the collector of customs for depreciated currency. (T. D. 15435).

When an invoice is certified by a consul of a nation at the time in amity with the United States, or by two respectable merchants, as provided by section 2844, Revised Statutes, the currency certificate required by this regulation may be issued by the foreign consul or the two respectable merchants who certify the invoice.

For statistical purposes the currency certificates required by these regulations must be attached to all invoices whether the merchandise be dutiable or nondutiable.
