Executive Order.

Whereas, pursuant to authority of Executive Orders of April 6, 1917, and April 30, 1917, certain radio systems and stations and rights connected therewith were taken over by the Government and certain restrictions were placed on the operation of other radio systems and stations;

I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby authorize, order, and direct as follows:

All radio stations taken over by the Government of the United States and now held by it under authority of Executive Orders of April 6 and April 30, 1917, respectively, including all systems lines and property taken possession of or received, operated, supervised or controlled under authority of said Executive Orders shall, at midnight on the 29th day of February instant, be returned and delivered to the respective owners thereof.

All restrictions placed under authority of said Executive Orders of April 6 and April 30, 1917, on all radio stations not necessary to the Government for naval communications shall be removed to take effect at midnight on the 29th day of February instant, from which time the control and operation of all radio stations not owned, controlled or operated by the Government independently of action taken by or on behalf of the Government under the aforesaid Executive Orders of April 6 and April 30, 1917, shall be subject to the provisions of the Act to regulate radio communication approved August 13, 1912.

The enforcement of this order is hereby delegated to the Secretary of the Navy, who is authorized and directed to take appropriate action in the premises.

WOODROW WILSON
