Executive Order

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress approved August 1, 1914, making provision for the sundry civil expense for the Government for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, the port of Portland, in customs collection district No. 29, (Oregon), is hereby abolished.

By virtue of the same authority a port of entry is hereby established at Portland in customs collection district No. 29, (Oregon), the limits of the said port of entry to be as follows:

"Commencing at the Southwest corner of Section 22, beginning township 2 North, range 1 West Willamette Meridian; thence in Northeasterly direction to the South bank of the Columbia river; thence, in a due Easterly direction to the center of the Columbia river; thence, in a general Easterly direction to the Interstate Bridge crossing the Columbia river between Portland and Vancouver; thence, in a Southerly direction to the South bank of the Columbia river; thence, in a Southeasterly direction to the intersection of Union Avenue; thence, in a Southerly direction to Clinton Street; thence, in a Southeasterly direction two (2) miles; thence, at right angles in a Southwesterly direction two (2) miles; thence, at right angles in a Northwesterly direction fifteen (15) miles; thence, at right angles about 1¾ miles to the place of beginning."

This Order shall be effective at the close of business February 28, 1921.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
24 January, 1921.

[No. 3390.]