Executive Order

Mr. Mason Bragg may be reinstated in the postal service at Beckley, West Virginia, without regard to the length of his separation from the service.

Mr. Bragg was removed from the position of clerk in the Beckley post office on August 7, 1917, charged with disloyalty. The case has since been reinvestigated and it has been ascertained that an injustice was done Mr. Bragg in authorizing his removal. His reinstatement as a clerk in the post office is recommended by the Postmaster General.

The Civil Service Commission does not concur in the recommendation.
