Executive Order

ROUTT NATIONAL FOREST

COLORADO

Under authority of the Act of Congress approved June 4, 1897 (30 Stat., 11, 34–36), and on the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, it is hereby ordered that the boundaries of the Routt National Forest in Colorado be modified by excluding therefrom all Sec. 7, T. 10 N., R. 87 W., and the W½ NW¼ Sec. 9, E½ Sec. 10 and all Secs. 11 and 12, T. 10 N., R. 88 W., 6th P. M., containing 2,318 acres.

And it is hereby ordered, pursuant to Public Resolution No. 29, approved February 14, 1920, as amended by Public Resolutions Nos. 36 and 79, approved January 21, and December 28, 1922, respectively, that the public lands in the above described areas, subject to valid rights, and the conditions applicable to lands withdrawn for coal classification, shall be opened only to entry under the homestead and desert land laws by qualified ex-service men of the war with Germany, under the terms and conditions of said resolutions and the regulations issued thereunder, for a period of ninety-one days beginning with the sixty-third day from and after the date of this order, and thereafter to appropriation under any public land law applicable thereto by the general public.

Subsequent to the date hereof and prior to the date of restoration to general disposition as provided herein, no rights may be acquired to the excluded lands by settlement in advance of entry, or otherwise, except strictly in accordance herewith.
