3952

Executive Order.

WHEREAS, the lands comprising the Fort Keogh Military Reservation, Montana, were originally reserved from the public domain for military purposes by Executive Order of March 14, 1878, and,

WHEREAS, the Reservation as reduced by the Act of Congress, approved July 30, 1890, (26 Stat. 292) was transferred to the Department of the Interior May 28, 1908, but redeclared for military purposes by Executive Order of January 22, 1909, and, M. 10 11 M. 3711

WHEREAS, by Executive Order of July 26, 1922, the lands embraced in the Reservation as redeclared for military purposes by said Executive Order of January 22, 1909, lying easterly of the Tongue River, were transferred to the Department of the Interior for disposition under the Act of July 5, 1884, (23 Stat. 103) and,

WHEREAS, the remaining part of said Reservation, to wit: that part thereof lying westerly of the channel of the Tongue River has now become useless for military purposes,

NOW, THEREFORE, under the authority of Section 1 of the Act of July 5, 1884, (23 Stat. 103) it is hereby ordered that all the remaining part of the Fort Keogh Military Reservation, Montana, to wit: that part thereof lying westerly of the channel of the Tongue River having become useless for military purposes, be and the same is hereby placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition as provided by the above Act or as may otherwise be provided by law.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
February 2, 1924.

[No. 3952.]

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE