Third Executive Order

No. 2703 No 1993

The Executive Order of May 25, 1915, vacating the order of July 17, 1914, creating the Blackbeard Island Reservation, Georgia, for the protection of native birds, is hereby vacated and the bird reservation created by Executive Order of July 17, 1914, is hereby restored in its original area and for the original purpose, as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds, under the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture, subject, however, as before, to the use of the island by the Treasury Department for quarantine purposes should such use in the future be deemed necessary.

See No. 4512

It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, willfully disturb, or kill any bird of any kind whatever, or take the eggs of such birds within the limits of this reservation, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties provided by Section 84, U. S. Criminal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat., 1088).
