Executive Order

WHEREAS by proclamation of November 10, 1899 (31 U. S. Statutes at Large, p. 1959), a certain tract of land situated on Punchbowl Slope, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, was reserved for naval purposes and, by executive order of March 25, 1910 (No. 1181), was transferred from the control of the Navy Department and placed under the control of the Department of Agriculture, and

WHEREAS the use of said tract of land is no longer desired by the Department of Agriculture and the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii desires that the tract be returned to the Territory for use as a school site,

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me, I direct that said tract of land be, and the same is hereby, restored to its former status in the possession, use, and control of the Government of the Territory of Hawaii.

The tract of land in question is more particularly described by metes and bounds, as follows:
