Second Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that the Strawberry Valley Reservation, Utah, for the protection of native birds, created by Executive Order No. 1032, dated February 25, 1909, be, and the same is, hereby modified in area by adding thereto adjoining tracts of land so that the reservation as enlarged will embrace the following legal subdivisions:

In township three south, range eleven, the southeast quarter of section seven, the south half of sections eight and nine, and the southwest quarter of section ten; the west half, and the southeast quarter of section fifteen, all of sections sixteen and seventeen, and the east half of sections eighteen and nineteen; all of sections twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, and the east half of section thirty; the east half, and the southwest quarter of section thirty-one, and all of sections thirty-two, thirty-three and thirty-four, in said township.

In township three south, range twelve, the southeast quarter of section thirty-six.

In township four south, range twelve, the northeast quarter of section one.

In township four south, range eleven, all of sections three, four, five and six; the east half of section eight, all of section nine and the west half of section ten, all west of the Uinta Meridian, Utah, as segregated by the broken line upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part of this order.

All of the lands enumerated are within a withdrawal for reclamation purposes and their additional reservation for a bird refuge, which is hereby ordered, is subject to their use by the Bureau of Reclamation, including leasing for grazing, under the provisions of the act approved June 17, 1902 (32 Stat., 388), and acts amendatory thereof, and to any other valid existing rights, and are set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds.

It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, wilfully disturb or kill any native bird of any kind whatever or take the eggs of such birds within the limits of this reservation, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated under the penalties provided by Section 84, U. S. Criminal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat., 1088).
