4454

Executive Order

Under the provisions of the Act approved February 27, 1925, making an appropriation for such expenses as the President may deem proper in connection with the convening of an international conference on oil pollution of navigable waters which is to meet in Washington June 8, 1926, for the purpose of facilitating an exchange of views on technical matters and to consider the formulation of proposals for dealing with the problem through international agreement, which appropriation reads as follows:

> For the purpose of defraying the expenses of a conference of maritime nations to be held at Washington, in accordance with the authorization contained in Public Resolution Numbered 65, approved July 1, 1922, to consider the adoption of effective means for the prevention of oil pollution of navigable waters, including salaries of a secretary general and other assistants and employees, rent in the District of Columbia, contingent expenses, printing and binding, travel and subsistence expenses (and the Secretary of State may allow per diem in lieu of subsistence at not to exceed $8), and such other expenses as the President may deem proper, fiscal year 1926, $42,000: Provided, That of this amount $8,000 shall be immediately available, and such amount may be transferred by the Secretary of State, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, to the Bureau of Standards for direct expenditure for use in examining the behavior of proper devices for the separation of oil from ballast water on board vessels at sea and for laboratory experiments in connection therewith, in preparation for the said conference on oil pollution in navigable waters, including personal services in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, traveling and other expenses. (In accordance with the foregoing provision the sum of $8,000 for the fiscal years 1925 and 1926 has been transferred to the Department of Commerce for direct expenditure by the Bureau of Standards under the title, "Conference on Oil Pollution of Navigable Waters (State transfer to Commerce—Bureau of Standards, Act March 4, 1925), 1925 and 1926".)—Deficiency Act March 4, 1925, vol. 43, p. 1339.

expenditures for the following are hereby authorized to be incurred or to be authorized by the Secretary of State in his discretion:

Compensation of clerks, messengers and other employees.
Messenger service.
Office supplies and equipment.
Stationery.
Telegrams.
Telephone service.
Postage.
Rent or expenses in connection with a building to be used for the conference.
Entertainment as approved by Secretary of State.
Printing.
Local transportation, taxicabs, cab hire, etc.

Travel in accordance with the provisions of the "regulations to govern travel of diplomatic and consular officers".

Subsistence, actual and necessary, while en route, during the continuance of the conference, or prior thereto, while engaged on work in preparation for the conference, at not exceeding $7 per day, to be fixed by the Secretary of State. Per diem in lieu of subsistence may be paid at not exceeding $6. Subsistence shall include meals, lodging, tips to hotel employees and dining car and restaurant waiters.

Such other miscellaneous items as may from time to time become necessary, except where expenditures for any such items are specifically prohibited by law.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
June 5, 1926.

[No. 4454]

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE