Executive Order

By virtue of the authority vested in me by law, Paragraph 12 of the Executive Order of February 2, 1914, (No. 1888), providing conditions of employment for the permanent force for The Panama Canal, is hereby amended so as to authorize payment to certain hourly and per diem employees for emergency work in excess of eight hours on Sundays and authorized holidays, on the same basis as now authorized or may hereafter be authorized for employees of the Naval establishment in the United States. As amended, the paragraph will read as follows:

12. Employees above the grade of laborer, appointed with rates of pay per hour or per day, will not be employed over eight hours in any one calendar day, except in case of emergency. The time such employees work over eight hours in one calendar day, and time worked on Sundays and regularly authorized holidays, including January 1st, February 22d, May 30th, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and December 25th, shall be considered overtime for which time and one-half will be allowed. Such employees who work on the days prior and subsequent to the holidays specifically named above will be allowed their regular pay for eight hours for such days, in addition to pay for any work performed; Provided, That payment to such employees for emergency work in excess of eight hours on Sundays and authorized holidays shall be made on the same basis as now authorized or may hereafter be authorized for employees of the Naval establishment in the United States.
