Executive Order

Mrs. Elizabeth Sheehan may be appointed to the position of operative in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing without regard to the civil service rules.

This Order is issued upon the recommendation of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury who states that Mrs. Sheehan is the widow of a veteran of the Spanish American War and is forced to support herself and five children. She was employed in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing from May 1, 1920, to April 22, 1924, without civil service status.

The Civil Service Commission submits the case without prejudice.

Done for charity.
