Executive Order

Mrs. Bessie H. Smith may be reinstated in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, as an operative, without regard to the length of time she has been separated from the service.

Mrs. Smith was employed in the Bureau from 1904 to 1907, when she resigned to marry. She has four children aged eighteen, seventeen, fifteen, and four, and she and her family, including her mother, are entirely dependent upon the earnings of the two older children.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury. The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
