Executive Order

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States of America, and pursuant to the provision of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1927, entitled "An Act To authorize the sale, under the provisions of the Act of March 12, 1926, (Public, Numbered 45) of surplus War Department real property" (Public No. 796–69th Congress), the Secretary of Agriculture having made application to the Secretary of War for the transfer thereof, and given specific reasons therefor within ninety days after the approval of the above-mentioned Act of Congress approved March 4, 1927, and such action having received my approval, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that that portion of the Fort Matanzas Military Reservation in the State of Florida, as below described, be hereby transferred to the Department of Agriculture as a refuge for birds:

The entire group of marsh islands lying in the Matanzas River south of the main channel thereof near the mouth of the said river, in the SE¼ of Section 14 and the NE¼ of Section 23, Township 9 South, Range 30 East, about 15 miles to the southward of Saint Augustine, Florida, as set apart for military purposes by Executive Order No. 2353, dated April 3, 1916, EXCEPTING THEREFROM an area of one (1) acre comprising within such area the site of the old fortification which is situated on a marsh island south of the present main channel of the Matanzas River in the southeast quarter of Section 14, Township 9 South, Range 30 East, about 15 miles from the City of Saint Augustine, and about one mile from Matanzas Inlet, which area was specifically designated a national monument by Proclamation No. 1713, dated October 15, 1924.
