Executive Order

Mrs. Helen M. Tullis may be appointed to a clerkship in the post office at Denver, Colorado, without regard to the requirements of the civil service rules.

Mrs. Tullis is the widow of Joseph T. Tullis, for nineteen years a faithful employee of the Post Office Department, whose death on May 19, 1927, in an automobile accident in the direct line of his duty, left Mrs. Tullis with one dependent child and without adequate means of support.

The Postmaster General recommends the issuance of this order. The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
