Executive Order

Mrs. Mary Hazard Teele may be appointed to a clerical position in the Department of Agriculture without examination under the civil service rules.

Mrs. Teele is the widow of Mr. Ray P. Teele, Agricultural Economist, who was employed in the Department of Agriculture almost continuously since 1899. Mr. Teele died suddenly August 31, 1927, while on a special field assignment to the Interior Department in connection with an investigation of reclamation projects in Indian Reservations. Mrs. Teele has no adequate means of support and the Secretary of Agriculture recommends her appointment.

The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

Done for charity.
