Executive Order

Jeremiah Regan, Fred Eugene Potter, and Patrick Reddington, employed as chauffeurs at the Marine Corps Garage, Washington, D. C., are hereby included within the classified civil service without regard to the civil service act or rules.

These employees entered the service of the U. S. Marine Corps as laborers, June 7, 1913, November 1, 1917, and July 20, 1918, respectively, and have rendered faithful and efficient service. They have qualified thru examination for the position of chauffeur but their names have never been reached for certification.

This order is issued upon recommendation of the Secretary of the Navy.

The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.
